

HOW TO PURCHASE YOUR CD

For only $15 each posted to you

This CD presents the newly released Brendan Graham song, 'Orphan Girl' written specifically about the workhouse orphans who fled the Irish Famine and immigrated to Australia between 1848 to 1850.

Brendan Graham is one of Ireland's most successful songwriters ever. His 'You Raise Me Up', written with Rolf Lovland has become one of the biggest songs in the history of popular music. It is also on this CD with another of his songs, 'The Whitest Flower'.

Each song is enhanced with a commentary by Brendan Graham.

Each CD is A$15.00 including postage & handling:

Two purchase options:

1. Direct debit to our account: Great Irish Famine Commemoration Committee
BSB: 062 030
Account: 10013868

To ensure delivery please clearly indicate your full name & postal address

2. A cheque or money order for A$15.00 made out to :

The Great Irish Famine Commemoration Committee
PO Box 209
ROSEVILLE NSW 2069

✂ —————

Please complete and enclose the form below to ensure correct delivery:

Full Name [please print clearly] .....

Address [please print clearly] .....

.....POSTCODE .....

Email [please print clearly] .....